

ISS Setup 9 Dec 2016

Today we started work on the profiler antenna, erected a 3m tower, and continued moving equipment and worked on the shelter. In addition power hookup was installed at the site (coming from the adjacent cell tower). The weather continues to cooperate, being clear with light winds and a high around 15C.

