

Session 2 (Tuesday, 1030 to Noon)

Essential Principles (10:30 - 12:00)

Welcome online participants! We hope that you will continue your participation by picking one of the blogs for this session. You can add your comments to a blog once you have logged in using the username and password emailed to you on the 26th.

Remember, each of these blogs are parallel to each other--each breakout group will be putting together a list of Essential Principles. The 6 breakout reports will be reconciled during the afternoon plenary. Important reminder: You will need to refresh your browser frequently (every 15-30 seconds) to view new content and comments in the blogs.

Each of the following links will lead you to one of the breakout blogs for this session:
