

Qsoil offset adjustments

Just because we were tired of seeing red-lined Qsoil values in cockpit, I've added the offsets found from my gravimetric samples to metcraxii2.xml. The values now look much better, though I'd still like another gravimetric sample in different moisture conditions to make a better calibration.

Gordon: You might want to propagate this change to Boulder...